

FREMONT AREA
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Fremont Area Community Foundation Technology Policy

In November, 2013 the Fremont Area Community Foundation (FACF) Board of Trustees approved the following education policies that will go in effect January 1, 2014:

FACF supports technology in the classroom by funding opportunities for professional development for educators. FACF considers technology hardware an operational cost to be incurred by the individual school districts. Grants will not supplant or replace programs already supported by school district funds.